Niagara Falls Convention Centre Names Tim Oldfield As New President & General Manager

We would like to announce that after a professional and extensive process, the Niagara Falls Convention Centre Board of Directors has completed their search for a new President and General Manager.

We are pleased to announce that Tim Oldfield will assume the role of President and General Manager effective April 14, 2025.

Tim has most recently been employed with Marriott International as Vice President Corporate Accounts, Global Sales. As a strategic leader with over 25 years of success in driving strong financial results through business plan execution, associate engagement and customer retention. Tim joins the Niagara Falls Convention Centre with a bevy of knowledge in the hospitality industry to assist in leading the NFCC team. Tim is also a member of the Global Business Travel Association Advisory Board for Canada.

WHERE INSPIRATION FLOWS.

Niagara Falls Convention Centre’s Board of Directors Chair, Anna DiCienzo, says: “Tim joins the NFCC team with more than 25 years of distinguished experience in the hospitality industry, with background in strategic growth, sales, and brand development. Tim has demonstrated a strong commitment to excellence and innovation, making him a valuable addition to our team. We are confident that his extensive background and industry insights will play a key role in further elevating the NFCC brand.”

Tim Oldfield: “I am truly honoured to assume the role of President of the Niagara Falls Convention Centre. Niagara Falls is a world-renowned destination, offering an exceptional array of attractions for both leisure and business tourism. With its breathtaking natural beauty and thriving tourism infrastructure, the region has vast untapped potential for continued growth and development in the business events sector.”

With state-of-the-art facilities and versatile event spaces, the Convention Centre is uniquely positioned to host a wide variety of high-profile events, from national sport competitions and international conferences to large-scale consumer expos and multi-day trade shows. These events not only generate significant economic impact, but also showcase Niagara Falls as a premier destination for both business events and large groups.
